NOTABLE CASES

Cargo Theft

On February 24, 2025, the Moreno Valley Special Teams, through extensive investigation into cargo thefts, seized a large number of stolen cargo merchandise from a warehouse in Moreno Valley.

The team identified and recovered a total of 51 pallets of Turtle Beach electronics products, that was later loaded onto a trailer and shipped back to the original company.

While at the warehouse, the team identified and recovered additional 41 pallets of stolen cargo, including 13 pallets of fish oil, and 25 pallets of Brumate tumblers. These pallets were the property of Amazon. The total value of recovered stolen cargo came to $9.1 million. The investigation is ongoing.

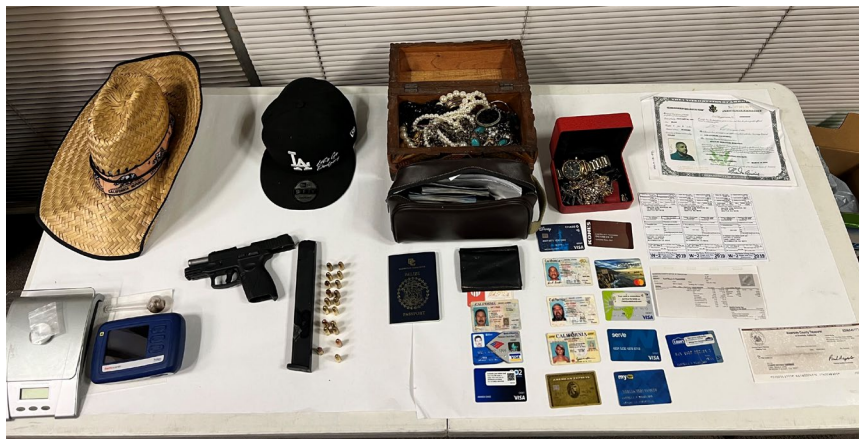

Residential Burglary

On February 5, 2025, a residential burglary occurred at Ocean Dunes Street. A vehicle was seen at the burglary location, with items being loaded into the vehicle by two suspects. On February 7, 2025, Deputy Mendez conducted a proactive investigative stop on possible suspect's vehicle. During the traffic stop the passengers identified themselves as Amanda Chase and "Matthew Ochoa" who were later released from the traffic stop.

The MVSS SET team assumed investigation and positively identified Chase and Raymond Soto as the occupants of the vehicle. After reviewing multiple residential surveillances, city wide cameras, and interviewing witnesses, Deputy Beu was able to positively identify Chase and Soto as the burglary suspects. A search warrant was authored for Chase's and Soto's residence

During the search warrant, the Special Team located stolen property belonging to the victim of the residential burglary, stolen passports, items related to check fraud, 9mm Taurus semi-auto handgun (unregistered) with an extended 30 round magazine and clothing the suspect wore during the burglary. Both suspects were arrested and booked at RPDC on burglary charges.
